Types of personal data processed

The personal data collected and processed through this website following the completion of the forms on this website are as follows:

Navigation data

Like all websites, this site also acquires certain personal data whose transmission is implicit in the use of Internet communication protocols.

This category of data includes IP addresses or domain names of the computers used by users who connect to the site, URI (Uniform Resource Identifier) addresses of the resources requested, the time of the request, the method used to submit the request to the server, the size of the file obtained in response, the numerical code indicating the status of the response given by the server (successful, error, etc..) and other parameters relating to the operating system and computer environment.

For cookies processed by www.iniachitetti.it please refer to the cookie policy available below.

Purpose of the processing and its legal basis

The navigation data are acquired by the computer systems and software procedures of this website for its normal operation. This information is not collected to be associated with identified interested parties, but by their very nature could, through processing and association with data held by third parties, allow users to be identified. This data is used for the sole purpose of obtaining anonymous statistical information on the use of the site and to check its correct functioning. This data is collected on the basis of your express consent through persistent navigation on the site.

Period of storage: for the time of navigation on the website.

Place of data processing

The processing operations connected to the web services of this site take place at the headquarters of the Data Controller.

Nature of the provision of personal data

The provision of personal data on the site is always optional. However, in the absence of providing such data, the Service requested cannot be provided.

Data subjects' rights

Users (data subjects) have a number of rights under Regulation (EU) 2016/679. These are:

- right to access your personal data (once you have received confirmation that your data is being processed by the Controller);
- right to obtain the rectification and integration of their data;
- right to obtain the deletion of your data;
- right to obtain the limitation of the processing of your personal data under certain conditions;
- right to receive the personal data provided to the holder in a structured and commonly used format, and to transmit them to a different holder;
- the right to object to the processing of personal data if there are reasons related to your personal situation;
- right not to be subject to an automated decision-making process;
- right to obtain communication in the event of a serious breach of their data;
- right to withdraw consent to processing at any time;
- right to lodge a complaint before a supervisory authority.

Requests should be addressed to the Data Controller, who undertakes to make it as easy as possible for data subjects to exercise their rights, at the following e-mail address: studio@iniarchitetti.it.

Update

The Privacy Policy of the Website from July 06, 2020 may be subject to periodic updates. Any substantial changes will be published at this address and it is the responsibility of the user to periodically monitor this website to find out about the validity or modification of these conditions.

Cookies are small text files that are installed by a website in the temporary memory of the browser that you use (and therefore in the device from which you connect to the Platform, such as a PC, tablet, mobile phone, etc.) and that record certain information relating to your browsing activity. Cookies allow you to temporarily record certain information relating to your preferences, but at the same time they allow you to navigate more easily and make the site you are visiting easier to use and more effective.

Depending on where they come from, cookies can be:

- of first part, i.e. sent directly from our site;
- of third parties, coming from other sites and sent through our site.

If we look at their purpose, cookies can be:

- technical: they are used for navigation or to provide a service requested by the user and are not used for any other purpose;
- analytics: they are used to collect information on the behaviour of site users, such as the number of visits, the most viewed pages, the channels from which visitors come. We use them to collect this data in anonymous and aggregate form;
- profiling: these are the cookies used to track the user's surfing on the web and create profiles on his tastes, habits, choices... Through the information contained in these cookies, for example, advertising messages can be transmitted to the user's device in line with the preferences already expressed by the user when surfing online.

Type of cookies installed

The website www.inichitetti.it installs third-party technical session cookies on your device.

These cookies, necessary for correct and safer navigation, contain codes generated by our server. They do not contain any kind of personal information and do not store the sites visited; they are usually not permanently stored on the user's device and are deleted at the end of navigation, when the browser is closed or after a short period of time. This type of cookie therefore does not require your consent.
